About the Migration

- In 2003 we were told that version of Blackboard v.5.5 would no longer be supported
- Perfect time to explore other products
- Surveyed faculty Spring 2004
  - Identify top features currently used
  - Identify top three features required of a new product
- Formed CMS Task Force to review products
CMS Task Force

- 35 faculty members
- 7 staff members
- Members asked to review products based on selection criteria from Spring 2004 faculty survey
- Only met once - communication via e-mail
- Arranged for visits from SLN, ANGEL, and Blackboard
- Offered webinars for those unable to attend campus visits
- Voting used traditional paper ballots

Task Force Members voted 25 – 1 for ANGEL
The Migration Plan

- Blackboard contract ending December 31, 2005
- Signed small hosted contract with ANGEL March 2005
- Took online Instructor training with ANGEL April 2005
- Began training faculty involved in pilot late April 2005
- Decision made to require training to use ANGEL
- Pilot Fall 2005 with 6 faculty and 11 online courses
- Began training campus faculty September 2005
Campus Training and Migration

- Training offered to 10 faculty at a time
- Had to register to attend
- Faculty migrated own content
- Faculty provided with flash drives to archive Blackboard content and import it into ANGEL
- Faculty moved one course during training, migrated the others on their own
- To date - 532 faculty using ANGEL
Success of ANGEL Migration

• People want to use it!
  o Fall 2005 courses on Blackboard – 263
  o Fall 2006 courses on ANGEL - 502
• Faculty continue to request training for access to course site throughout semester
• Participation at ANGEL Networking Hour and ANGEL Faculty Breakfast Series high
• Availability of student groups driving student use, in turn driving more faculty to use ANGEL
Faculty like ANGEL because...

- Customization
- Learning Object Repositories
- Interlink within own course
- Internal e-mail
- More robust gradebook
