Project Management Community of Practice
September 26, 2024

What is the Project Management Community of Practice?

- This Community of Practice is for Project Management Professionals inside and outside of the SUNY community. We aim to create a space where project management professionals can share best practices, initiate discussions around project management concepts and learn more about project management and topics that affect project management.

- We look to foster discussion and sharing through the following:
  - Monthly webinars on PM topics and concepts
  - Discussion posts from moderators and members
  - Polls
  - Training opportunities for those in a PM centered position

September Monthly Webinar Speaker

For our September 2024 Monthly Webinar, Phil Vecchione and Jason Poch from ITEC agreed to present their SUNY Technology Conference 2024 presentation again just for us! They will be joining us to present the following:

Managing Project Resource Allocation in TDX

Do we have enough team members to work on this upcoming project? We have a project that will require a six-month commitment. Who currently has the capacity to take on some extra work? An expedited request just came up. Who from our team is available to help with completing it in a timely manner? When it comes to executing projects and project requests, organizations manage team members' workloads differently. In this session, ITEC will lead you through how their PMO manages project resource allocation. Highlights of this session will include how project resource allocation was managed prior to TDX; how TDX was setup to manage resources; how TDX is now used to manage project requests and projects; as well as future planning and reporting.
